

HOLY WEEK

2024

“But he was pierced for our transgressions;
he was crushed for our iniquities;
upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace,
and with his wounds we are healed.
All we like sheep have gone astray;
we have turned—every one—to his own way;
and the Lord has laid on him
the iniquity of us all.”

ISAIAH 53: 5–6

PALM SUNDAY

Luke 19: 28-40

PRAYER:

Are we willing to give everything to the Lord?

PRAYER REQUEST:

When God asks something of us, we do not hesitate to do it; whether it is our time, talent or finances. In this biblical portion we see how the owner of the colt did not hesitate to give (perhaps his only colt) to the Lord Jesus; this resulting in part from the wonderful story of our Savior's Triumphal entry into Jerusalem. Let us pray that at all times we can give wholeheartedly, with sincerity and generosity. And that when giving we feel the joy of understanding that great things God has prepared for those who give without conditions or reservations.

MONDAY

Matthew 16:24-27

PRAYER:

The Gospel has its price

PRAYER REQUEST:

Denying ourselves means giving control of our lives to the Lord. And taking up the cross is being willing to suffer rejection for having completely given ourselves to Christ; dying to sin, to self and to the world. Being held by the hand of the Lord, we will be certain that he will not allow us to go through moments that we cannot resist. Let us give immense thanks to God for having chosen us to achieve this beautiful experience of living as he wants us to live, in love, humility, compassion, purity, grace and holiness.

TUESDAY

Hebrews 12: 1-3

PRAYER:

Let's not look away

PRAYER REQUEST:

Throughout our lives, we should look away from everything that prevents us from looking at CHRIST. Jesus is our pure example of what our faith should be; He not only started the race, but finished it victorious. His career began in Bethlehem, he continued to Gethsemane and Calvary, then to the grave and back to heaven. He kept his gaze fixed toward the glory to come when all the redeemed will be eternally reunited with our redeemer. Let us pray to the Father to help us value the sacrifice of Christ and to remain firm in faith, walking towards our future encounter with our savior.

WEDNESDAY

Psalms 51: 1-3

PRAYER:

The cross has power to heal our lives

PRAYER REQUEST:

We have all done things at some point that we have regretted, but despite this, guilt follows us. To be freed from this anguish we must reach out to Christ in prayer, understanding that he brought to the cross the record of the decrees that were against us and made us free from sin and death. Let us pray that the Lord will give us the opportunity to witness to others that he forgave our past and has filled us with hope and blessing.

THURSDAY

Matthew 27: 27-31

PRAYER:

He is King of our lives

PRAYER REQUEST:

The cruel soldiers committed the most outrageous cruelty against the King of Kings, one of them was to cast a scarlet cloak on him, which is associated with sin (Isaiah 1:18); representing that our sin was cast upon Jesus, that the mantle of God's righteousness might be cast upon us. Let us pray that, during this Passion Week, we can share this powerful story and many can receive Christ as their only Savior.

FRIDAY

Galatians 3: 13-14

PRAYER:

We are no longer under curse

PRAYER REQUEST:

To redeem is to recover through purchase and release by paying the corresponding price. The Galatians imagined that Christ had redeemed them half, and that they had to acquire the rest by subjecting themselves to Jewish rites and ceremonies. Paul reminds us that Abraham's blessing is actually salvation by grace through Faith. Let us pray that each day we long to read and learn more of the word, so as not to be confused and to be able to teach others with wisdom and authority.

SATURDAY

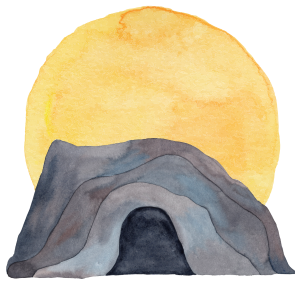

1 Thessalonians 4: 13-17

PRAYER:

Let's know God's perfect plans

PRAYER REQUEST:

Just as the Disciples were surprised and cried at the death of their friend and teacher Jesus, so we too are saddened by the absence of our family members who have passed away. We Christians cry, but not as those who have no hope, but as those who understand that, if Christ was resurrected, we will also be resurrected with Him, at His due time. Let us pray giving thanks for that blessed hope that we have in Jesus Christ and that he will help us in all our grieving processes.

SUNDAY

Psalms 42: 1-2

PRAYER:

Let us say with a loud voice and conviction: "My savior lives!"

PRAYER REQUEST:

How powerful are these words of the Psalmist, we see here his immense desire to be in the presence of the living God who quenches every Spiritual thirst. Today we know with certainty and celebrate that the tomb is empty. Jesus lives in us and he is with us. He is our faithful friend and our everything. Let us pray that we always "thirst for the water that springs up to eternal life" and that each of us who have received Christ as our only savior can share this great news so that the spirit of God convinces those who are to be saved. .

AT THE CROSS

Alas, and did my Savior bleed?
And did my Sovereign die?
Would He devote that sacred head
For such a worm as I?

(Chorus)

At the cross, at the cross where
I first saw the light,
And the burden of my heart rolled away,
It was there by faith I received my sight,
And now I am happy all the day!

Was it for sins that I had done
He groaned upon the tree?
Amazing pity! grace unknown!
And love beyond degree!

(Chorus)

Well might the sun in darkness hide,
And shut His glories in,
When Christ, the mighty Maker, died
For man, His creature's sin.

(Chorus)

Thus might I hide my blushing face
While His dear cross appears.
Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
And melt mine eyes to tears.

(Chorus)

But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe;
Here, Lord, I give myself away,
'Tis all that I can do.

(Chorus)
